PAM TEBOW

As the daughter of an army colonel, Pam Tebow lived all over the world until she was 17 and entered university. Her initial goal was to gain influence with an impressive resumé of accomplishments, only to discover the emptiness of exalting self. Through a series of what she calls “God stories,” Pam discovered the joy of investing herself in the lives of others, shaping her passion for life-impacting influence.

Today, Pam is passionate about speaking at women’s events, prolife and other non-profit groups, and various functions across the country. She encourages people of all ages to trust the Lord with their whole heart and life—then use the incredible influence God has given them to eternally impact their world.

Pam and her husband, Bob, have been married for over 50 years and reside in Florida. They give credit to the Lord and His Word for sustaining them through many adventures, including living and serving in the Philippines, raising—and homeschooling—five children, and now getting to enjoy ten grandchildren.
